Qur'an Reason
Institute

QUR'AN REASON INSTITUTE

Islam through reason, not ritual.

THINK · REFLECT · UNDERSTAND

The Qur'an doesn't ask for blind belief. It asks you to look, think, and reason. Every claim here is backed by a specific verse.

EXPLORE 120+ ARTICLES

15 HADITH REFUTATIONS

SCROLL

⚡ Thunder: Off

QUR'AN 47:24

Essential Methodology for Understanding the Qur'an

The foundational principles every student must grasp before approaching the Qur'an — context, internal coherence, and Arabic root...

Read Article →

QUR'AN 4:82

Basic Guidelines on How to Study the Qur'an

Practical step-by-step guidance: read holistically, cross-reference verses, avoid pre-loaded assumptions.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 12:2

Translation of an Untranslatable Book

Why no translation can fully capture the Qur'an, and what dangers come from relying solely on English versions.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 38:29

Importance of Holistic Reading

Reading a verse in isolation distorts its meaning. The Qur'an must be read as a complete, coherent whole.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:7

Understanding the Vague Messages

How to handle allegorical and ambiguous verses using reason, cross-reference, and the Qur'an's own internal principles.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 17:82

When a Reading of the Qur'an Can Misguide

A critical warning: incorrect methodology doesn't just produce wrong answers — it actively misguides sincere people.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:116

A Reading of the Qur'an Can Misguide When...

Specific cognitive habits — like selective reading and blind trust of scholars — that lead readers astray.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 20:114

Important Notes for Qur'an Students

Reminders for active students: avoid emotional reactions, don't rush, verify every claim against the Arabic text.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 10:15

Why Traditional Tafsirs Are Unreliable

Classical commentaries written centuries after the Prophet, embedded with cultural assumptions not in the Qur'an.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:103

Differences Among Qur'an-Centrists

A breakdown of different camps among those who take the Qur'an as their primary source.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:97

Meaning of Gabriel

What 'Gabriel' actually means in the Qur'an — beyond the popular image of a winged angel.

or a winged angel.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 15:9

Preservation of the Qur'an

Historical and textual evidence for the Qur'an's integrity — what 'preservation' actually means.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 5:48

Let Every Community Follow the Guidance of Their Own Books

The Qur'an's pluralistic vision — addressing multiple communities and their scriptures without dismissing them.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 41:53

Divine Messages in the Universe

The natural world carries patterns and signs that align with the Qur'an's core claims about creation and God.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 32:7

Unfolding of Divine Messages Like Biological Evolution

A fascinating parallel between the progressive nature of revelation and how evolution works in the natural world.

Read Article →

Read Article →

QUR'AN 4:82

Evidence of the Qur'an's Divine Origin

Internal and external evidence supporting the claim that the Qur'an originates from beyond human composition.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:135

Did Islam Originate from Judaism?

An honest research-based examination of whether Islam derived its core ideas from Jewish theology.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 4:82

Answering Atheists' Claims of Qur'an Contradictions

A systematic response to frequently cited alleged contradictions — each addressed with logic and context.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:111

An Answer to a Deist's Rebuttal of the Qur'an

Point-by-point response to a deist's critique, using internal Qur'anic evidence throughout.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:61

An Answer to Jay Smith's Historical Research on Islam

Evidence-based response to claims about Islamic origins and the historical reliability of the Qur'an.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 29:45

Why Salat Is NOT Ritual Prayer

The comprehensive argument from the Qur'an: salat is a system of reform and moral action — not physical rituals.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 29:45

The Word 'Salat' in the Qur'an

A complete survey of every use of 'salat' in the Qur'an — what the root means and what it never describes.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 33:43

Meaning of the Word 'Salat' in the Qur'an

Deep analysis of the Arabic root s-l-w: connection, support, following, reform — not ritual movement.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 22:78

Salat During the Time of the Prophet

Salat During the Time of the Prophet

Historical evidence of what 'establishing salat' meant before ritual prayer was systematized.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:3

Salat in the Modern Context

What establishing salat looks like today — as reform, justice, and social action rather than ritual.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 107:4

Why Qur'anic Salat Is Different from Ritual Prayer

One is about action in the world, the other is about physical posture.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 9:103

Why the Word Salat Doesn't Mean Ritual Prayer

Linguistic evidence from classical Arabic showing the word never originally meant the ritual movements.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 29:45

Why Traditional Prayer Is Not Qur'anic Salat

Comparing the traditional 5-times prayer against what the Qur'an says — the gaps are undeniable.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 22:18

Why Sujud Is Not Physical Prostration

Every 'sujud' verse in the Qur'an points to submission, humility and moral yielding — not a physical posture.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:43

Why Ruku Is Not Physical Bowing

The Qur'anic evidence that ruku refers to humility in conduct — not a ritual bow.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 4:102

Why Qiyam Is Not Physical Standing

Qiyam in the Qur'an means establishment, purpose, and steadfastness — not standing upright in prayer.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

Why Rakat Is an Un-Qur'anic Concept

The word 'rakat' does not appear in the Qur'an at all — it was invented as part of the ritual prayer system.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

Why Prayer Timing (Waqt) Is an Innovation

The five specific daily prayer times are not in the Qur'an — they were developed much later.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:177

Why Qibla Is Not Physical Direction

A physical geographic direction for prayer is not supported by the Qur'an's own use of the word.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 47:24

Why Mindless Tilawat Is Irrelevant for Salat

Reciting Arabic without understanding cannot fulfill the purpose of salat.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 5:6

Why Wudu, Ghusl and Tayammum Are Not Ritual Purification

These concepts in the Qur'an refer to spiritual and moral cleansing — not physical washing.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 4:101

Why the Prophet's Wartime Salat Was Not Ritual Prayer

Why the Prophet's Wartime Salat Was Not Ritual Prayer

The Qur'an describes 'salat' during battle — this verse alone demolishes the idea of ritual movements.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:177

Why Establishing Salat Means Works of Reform

'Iqamat al-salat' means building a system of justice, care, and moral action in society.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

Why Noon, Afternoon and Middle Prayers Are Extra-Qur'anic

Named prayer times like Zuhr, Asr, and Wusta are not established in the Qur'an.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 62:9

Why Friday Prayer Is an Un-Qur'anic Invention

The institution of Jumu'ah as a weekly obligatory group prayer has no basis in the Qur'anic text.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 24:41

Birds and Salat

What 'birds performing salat' reveals about salat's true symbolic meaning.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 22:77

Meaning of Sujud

Detailed linguistic study showing sujud always refers to submission, never a physical posture.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:144

Change of Qibla

A shift in moral orientation, not a physical geographic direction.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 5:3

What Is Deen?

A thorough examination of what 'deen' means in the Qur'an — a complete way of life, not just 'religion'.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 5:3

Does Deen Have a Structure?

The internal architecture of the Qur'anic way of life — how all its components connect.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:153

Zoroastrian Influence on Traditional Islam

How pre-Islamic Persian religious practices entered Islam through cultural assimilation and hadith.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:208

Are All 'O You Who Believe' Verses Applicable to Us?

Were some Qur'anic commands addressed specifically to the community of the Prophet's time?

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

Origin and Development of Traditional Muslim Prayer

Historical account of how the 5-times ritual prayer developed over centuries after the Prophet.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

On Origin of Five Daily Prayers: Tom Holland vs Jonathan Brown

The academic debate about when and how the daily prayer ritual was actually established.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 77:50

The Qur'an Prohibited Hadith

Specific Qur'anic verses explicitly warn against following 'other hadith' beyond the Qur'an itself.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

Hadith Prohibited Hadith

The hadith literature itself contains narrations where the Prophet forbade writing and spreading his sayings.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:38

The First Four Caliphs Prohibited Hadith

Historical evidence: Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, and Ali all refused to allow hadith to be recorded or circulated.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 45:6

Earlier Muslims Prohibited Hadith

Companions and early followers of the Prophet also resisted the recording and spread of hadith.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 10:36

Common Sense Prohibits Hadith

Simple logical reasoning about reliability, transmission, and memory

Simple logical reasoning about reliability, transmission, and memory shows why hadith cannot be trusted as revelation.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 31:6

The Qur'an Relates Hadith to Shirk

Following hadith alongside the Qur'an creates a second authority beside God — which the Qur'an defines as shirk.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

The Qur'an Rejects Hadith and Its Authority

A comprehensive verse-by-verse argument showing the Qur'an explicitly rejects all religious authority beyond itself.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:112

The Qur'an Describes Hadith as Satanic Revelation

Specific verses in the Qur'an describe fabricated religious narrations as inspired by Satan.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 9:31

The Qur'an Exposes Hadith, Sunna, Ijma, Sharia and Salaf

How the Qur'an's own language undermines the authority of each of these traditional institutions.

Read Article →

Read Article →

QUR'AN 39:23

The Qur'an Disapproves All Hadiths Other Than the Qur'an

A focused examination of verses that directly warn against following narrations other than God's revelation.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:115

Why Qur'an Is the Only Authority of Islam

The Qur'an describes itself as complete, detailed, and sufficient — leaving no room for a second authority.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 10:100

How Hadiths Contradict Science and Reason

Specific hadiths that directly contradict established scientific fact and what this tells us about their reliability.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 68:4

How Hadiths Insult and Demonise the Prophet

Many hadith portray Muhammad in deeply undignified ways that contradict the Qur'anic description of his character.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 4:1

How Hadiths Degrade Women and Instigate Misogyny

A collection of hadiths attributing degrading, anti-women positions to the Prophet — contradicting the Qur'an entirely.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:151

How Hadiths Instigate Honour Killing

The specific hadith traditions used to justify honour killings and why they have no Qur'anic basis.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 25:30

How Hadiths Severely Corrupted Islam

A systematic examination of how the hadith tradition, introduced 200+ years after the Prophet, reshaped Islam.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:114

Answering Hadithists' Arguments

Point-by-point responses to the most common arguments made in defence of hadith as a religious authority.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 77:50

Why We Should Trash All Hadiths

The strongest case against the entire hadith corpus — not just weak hadiths, but the institution itself.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 10:36

Criticism of Hadith: From a Qur'anic Viewpoint

Using the Qur'an's own criteria to assess what kind of authority, if any, hadith can claim.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:38

Why the Prophet Prohibited Hadith

The practical, theological, and historical reasons why the Prophet refused to allow his sayings to be written.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 16:125

A Debate with an Angry Traditionalist

A live intellectual exchange showing how Qur'anic arguments hold up under the strongest counter-arguments.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 24:54

Obey God by Obeying His Message/Messenger

What 'obey the Messenger' actually means — obeying the Qur'an he brought, not his reported sayings.

Read Article →

Qur'an 6:38

About the Earliest Hadith Collections

Historical analysis of when and how the earliest hadith collections were compiled.

Read Article →

Qur'an 2:183

Siyam Is Not Fasting — It's Qur'an Study

'Siyam' means purposeful self-restraint and engagement with the Qur'an — the food-fasting institution is a later innovation.

Read Article →

Qur'an 2:185

Siyam Refers to Qur'an Study, NOT Fasting

The Qur'an introduces 'shahru ramadan' as the month the Qur'an was revealed — purpose is engagement, not abstinence.

Read Article →

Qur'an 2:187

Qur'anic Siyam vs Ritual Fasting

A direct comparison between what the Qur'an says about siyam and what the traditional fasting institution involves.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:185

Meaning of Shahru Ramadan

What the phrase 'Shahru Ramadan' actually means — elevated awareness and Qur'an engagement, not a calendar month.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:185

Ramadan Is a State of Mind, Not a Name of a Month

The word 'ramadan' describes a quality of burning intensity and focused awareness — not a fixed point on a calendar.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 9:36

Qur'an Recognizes the Solar Calendar as Main Timing System

Evidence that the Qur'an's primary timing system is solar, not lunar — with major implications for practice.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 97:1

Lailatul Qadr: Night of Meditation

The 'Night of Power' in the Qur'an is a state of deep contemplation — not a fixed night on a calendar.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:158

Meaning of Safa and Marwah

Moving beyond the ritual Hajj interpretation to understand what Safa and Marwah represent.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 17:1

Miraj from the Book of Viraz?

Was the Prophet's Night Journey narrative influenced by the pre-Islamic Zoroastrian text?

Read Article →

QUR'AN 72:18

Masjid in the Qur'an Is NOT a Physical Place

Detailed verse-by-verse analysis showing 'masjid' always refers to function and system — never a building.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:196

Masjid al-Haram Is a Peace Project, Not a Physical Place

The 'Masjid al-Haram' refers to a concept of sacred peace and sanctuary — not a location in Mecca.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 22:37

Qurbani: An Un-Qur'anic, Pagan Practice

The ritual slaughter of animals for Eid al-Adha has pagan roots and is not commanded in the Qur'anic text.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 37:102

Abraham's Sacrifice of His Son

What the Qur'anic story of Abraham's sacrifice actually means — a test of consciousness, not a model for slaughter.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:186

No Middleman Necessary Between Human and God

The Qur'an establishes a direct relationship between the individual and God — no priests or intermediaries.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:186

Is Praying for Something or Someone Helpful?

What does the Qur'an actually say about supplication and prayer?

Read Article →

QUR'AN 10:100

The Qur'an Calls for Critical Thinking and Reasoning

A survey of every Qur'anic call to observe, think, reflect, and reason — showing this is the Qur'an's core methodology.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 88:17

Importance of Scientific Observation

The Qur'an's repeated call to observe the natural world — directly aligned with the scientific method.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:191

Can Scientific Observation Be a Pillar of Islam?

The argument that the Qur'an makes scientific observation — not the five pillars — central to Islam.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 16:78

Sensory Perceptions in the Qur'an

How the Qur'an uses hearing, sight, and other senses as the primary tools of understanding God and the world.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 67:10

Senses and Minds in the Qur'an

The Qur'an consistently links the use of senses and intellect together — both required for genuine understanding.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 29:20

The Qur'an Calls on Us to Travel

The Qur'an explicitly commands travel and exploration as a means of gathering evidence and understanding history.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 5:110

Meaning of 'Bird' in the Qur'an

'Bird' in the Qur'an symbolizes the self, senses, and psycho-cognitive processes — not literal animals.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 32:7

Unfolding of Divine Messages Like Biological Evolution

Revelation and evolution as parallel progressive processes — a fascinating connection.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:164

Arguments for the Existence of God

A rational examination of major philosophical and observational arguments for God from a Qur'anic perspective.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 6:74

Abraham's Observation of the Universe

The Qur'anic account of Abraham reasoning to monotheism through observation of stars, moon, and sun.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 41:53

Finding God Through His Signs in Nature

The Qur'an directs us to look at the natural world as evidence for God's existence, attributes, and purpose.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 112:1

Towards a Qur'anic Understanding of the Divine

What does the Qur'an actually say about God's nature? Moving beyond anthropomorphism.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:163

Why Awareness of Oneness and Transcendence Is So Important

The Qur'an's core message: awareness of a single, transcendent reality underlying all existence.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 45:24

The Qur'an Rejects Atheism and Anthropocentrism

The Qur'an specifically argues against the idea that humans are the measure of all things.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:155

Can a Just and Merciful God Allow Evil and Suffering?

The problem of evil addressed from the Qur'anic framework of purpose, free will, and this world's nature.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 29:46

Our God and Your God Is One — 29:46

The Qur'an states the God of Islam, Judaism, and Christianity is the same God.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:4

How Rational Belief in God Sets Us on a Spiritual Path

What changes when you hold a reasoned — not inherited — belief in God.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 18:29

Free Will: Divine and Human Wills

Does God's knowledge of the future eliminate human free will? The Qur'anic position explained.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:4

Reflections on the Hereafter

What the Qur'an actually says about the afterlife — stripped of cultural mythology.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 36:78

The Qur'an Does Predict a Hereafter

Evidence within the Qur'an for accountability and life after death.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 11:107

Hell Is Temporary, Heaven Is Unending

What the Qur'an actually says about the duration of hell — and why eternal damnation may not be the Qur'anic position.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 44:54

The Myth of Heavenly Virgins

The 'hoor al-ain' — widely misread as sensual virgins — analyzed from the Qur'anic text, not hadith mythology.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 56:22

Meaning of H

Meaning of Hoor

The Arabic root and Qur'anic usage of the word 'hoor' — what it actually means.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 4:56

Will God Send Disbelievers to Eternal Hell?

A Qur'anic examination of what 'eternal' punishment means and whether the Qur'an actually teaches this.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:18

22 Reasons Shahada Should Contain No Name Except God's

Why the traditional shahada — 'La ilaha illa Allah wa Muhammadur rasulullah' — has no Qur'anic basis.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:18

La Ilaha Illa Allah Is the Only Shahada in the Qur'an

The Qur'an presents only the declaration of God's oneness as the core testimony.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 2:163

The First Commandment Has No Name in It Except God's

The Qur'an's first commandment focuses entirely on God's oneness — not on any human figure.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 5:92

Why the Prophet Was Not a Lawgiver

The Qur'an's description of the Prophet's role — messenger of the Book, not an independent source of law.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 33:40

Meaning of Muhammad in the Qur'an

What the name and concept of 'Muhammad' signifies in the Qur'anic text — far beyond biography.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:19

What Is True Islam?

Islam as the Qur'an defines it: submission to evidence, not ritual submission to inherited tradition.

Read Article →

QUR'AN 3:144

Islam vs Muhammadanism

The distinction between Qur'anic Islam — submission to God's word — and tradition evolved around the Prophet's person.

Read Article →

Qur'an Reason
Institute

Dedicated to Qur'anic scholarship grounded in reason, reflection, and intellectual honesty. We invite every sincere seeker to think deeply about their faith — guided only by the Qur'an itself.

► YouTube

♪ TikTok

✦ Lamp of Islam — All Articles

Qur'an

Essential Methodology

Tafsirs Unreliable

Preservation of Qur'an

Evidence of Divine Origin

Answering Contradictions

Salat & Ritual

Salat ≠ Ritual Prayer

Sujud ≠ Prostration

Friday Prayer Invented

Siyam ≠ Fasting

Masjid al-Haram Rethought

Hadith

Qur'an Prohibited Hadith

Qur'an Only Authority

Hadiths vs Science

Why Trash All Hadiths

Full Article Index →